

Te Reo Māori and Māori Medium PLD Providers

University of Waikato

Phone: 022 010 9495
Contact: Sharon Aitchison
Email: sharon.aitchison@waikato.ac.nz

- They have 10 Māori medium and dual medium facilitators and strengths in distance learning including online programme support for zoom, google & Microsoft suite, seesaw, schoology, moodle and canva.
- They provide resources and packs for offline learning.
- They assist in restorative practice encouraging positive behaviour for online learning, building, maintaining and repairing relationships.

They also support:

- the use of online webinars;
- lesson planning, pedagogical support and advice;
- subject specific help and NCEA support;
- te reo Māori and mātauranga Māori;
- physical and emotional wellbeing;
- leadership and change management support;
- student achievement tracking, evaluation and assessment/aromatawai; and
- learning support and disability education additional learning needs.

Aronui Limited

Phone: 09 405 0180
Contact: Frances Goulton
Email: Aronui@inspire.net.nz

- They have strengths in pedagogy and leadership development.
- They work with schools in isolation or where the need fits and combine schools together who have similar PLD requirements.
- They support the development of learning programmes in the home focusing on the context of the student and their whanau.
- They also help look at ways to support ākonga in ways that fits with them and their whanau.

Infinity Learn Ltd

Phone: 021 1400053
Contact: Brian Annan/ Mary Wootton
Email: Wootts70@gmail.com

- They have two expert facilitators and can identify the needs of your kura around distance learning and what that looks like from home and school.
- They can also tailor their support to meet your needs, including pedagogy and building pedagogical leadership.

Evaluation Associates

Phone: 09 360 0827
Contact: Ros Stephens
Email: r.stephens@evaluate.co.nz

- They have skills in student achievement tracking, evaluation and assessment/aromatawai.
- They provide online subject specific help for NCEA Te Reo Māori.

They also support:

- kura nationwide transitioning to distance learning;
- areas of physical and emotional wellbeing, leadership advice; and
- change management support including ākonga and whānau support and engagement.

Auckland UniServices Limited (Future Learning Solutions)

Phone: 027 290 9688
Contact: Tarryn Pelling
Email: PLD@Uniservices.co.nz

They have eight facilitators and support:

- areas of Distance Learning including pedagogical support, wellbeing and ākonga and whānau engagement; and
- session planning, the use of online learning platforms as well as the setting up and usage of virtual meetings.

Te Reo Māori and Māori Medium PLD Providers

Murray Sam Holdings

Phone: 021 060 2972
Contact: Phyllis Callaghan
Email: Phylliscallaghan6@gmail.com

They provide resource development support including:

- resources in te reo Māori for year 9 and 10 in Science, comprehension and tuhituhi;
- access to an interactive website – schools are issued with log ins and passwords to undertake learning;
- workbooks for ākonga, take tests and teachers can mark work, as well as provide direct feedback;
- printed copies for whānau not able to access internet;
- Cultural Academic Literacy tasks across years 9-13. Bilingual science – years 9 and 10;
- NCEA whakairo and Ngai Toi teaching and learning resources, including online youtube tutorial sessions across levels 1, 2 and 3; and
- moderation and assessment material.

Learning Leaders

Phone: 0272164871
Contact: Rosina Mary Shandley
Email: learningleaders.limited@gmail.com

- They use a range of e-learning platforms including Seesaw (and how to adapt it for MM), google-classroom, screencastify, google suite of apps, zoom basics and advanced, google meet and studyladder.
- They also provide support for Pāngarau and reo matatini.

ImpactED

Phone: 021992931
Contact: Arnika Macphail
Email: arnika@impacted.co.nz

They provide support for:

- resource development for online learning including the use of online tools such as Tick Sheet Book Creator. – How to set up and use the video series for ākonga and kaiako;
- digital tech and local curriculum development and strategic support;
- Year 9 & 10 level NCEA curriculum;
- digital fluency progress outcomes; and
- kanohi ki te kanohi hui via zoom teams, google meets etc including phone calls and emails checking in on ākonga wellbeing.

University of Otago

Phone: 021 912 167
Contact: Vanessa Whaanga
Email: Vanessa.whaanga@otago.ac.nz

- They have facilitators skilled in a range of online user platforms including zoom, google and Microsoft suite, and seesaw.

They also provide support for:

- kura in all areas of Distance Learning;
- NCEA and lesson planning;
- resource development and packs for offline learning;
- te reo Māori and mātauranga Māori;
- achievement tracking and evaluation; and
- ākonga and whānau engagement.

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiarangi

Phone: 07 306 3221
Contact: Hine Waitere
Email: Hine.waitere@wananga.ac.nz

- They use uara (school values) as a mechanism for collaborative assessment for learning with whānau.
- They provide technical support for Microsoft 365 and Google; and pedagogical support in a number of areas including being culturally responsive and relational in distance learning spaces.

They also support:

- kura in Northland, Coromandel, Waikato, Bay of Plenty and Hawkes Bay;
- co-constructing whānau partnerships for learning by, with and through mana enhancing relationships of interdependence, holistic and themed approaches to learning; and
- cross curricular inquiry utilising current contexts for learners.

K.I.S. Education

Phone: 0275446189
Contact: Dee Reid
Email: dee@kiseducation.org

- They support kura transitioning to offsite teaching and learning.
- They tailor a responsive approach to support kura.
- They also provide support in digital technologies and hangarau matihiko (accredited), online tools, ICT, te reo Māori, NCEA, differentiated learning, assessment and leadership.

Te Reo Māori and Māori Medium PLD Providers

Cognition Education

Phone: 09 638 4760
Contact: Ian Ormiston
Email: iormiston@cognitioneducation.com

- They support all areas of distance learning.
- They provide support for planning, the learning tools being used and pedagogy.
- They also assist in monitoring the impact of the learning that is being provided.

Taimarino Holdings (formerly Te Taumata O Ngāti Whakaue Iho Ake Trust)

Phone: 0272540775
Contact: Sivina Jacobs
Email: sivina@taimarino.org.nz

- They assist with tracking evidence of learning online to demonstrate that ākonga are meeting achievement standards and provide support in the provision of assessment.

Pam Fergusson Charitable Trust

Phone: 021 766 826
Contact: Vivian Chandra
Email: viv@pamfergusson.org.nz

- They have three facilitators and te reo Māori capability.
- They also offer customised technical knowledge to help build online programmes including providing support around which platforms to use and how to access and manage them effectively.

Te Paerahi

Phone: 027 212 800
Contact: Lynette Bradnam
Email: Tepaerahi@gmail.com

- They support kaiako in multiple methods that are available for facilitating learning for ākonga and provides advice on the wellbeing of ākonga, whānau, kaiako, and on leadership decision making and communication.

Kotare Enterprises Ltd

Phone: 027 212 800
Contact: Lynette Bradnam
Email: Tepaerahi@gmail.com

- They support kura to assist in respectful communications that build relational trust by conducting online meetings to discuss and work collaboratively alongside kura leaders to create and innovate solutions.
 - Their educational strengths are in the development of localised curriculum, ngā marau te reo Māori, Pāngarau, Tikanga ā-lwi planning and resourcing.
- They also support:
- the development of kaihautūtanga (leadership) including all processes of performance agreements and performance review; and
 - board of trustee training in Rāngai Māori Kura and NAG 2 compliance for the development of leading school documentation.

Massey University

Phone: 021 170 9286
Contact: Manager
Email: K.Cheetham@massey.ac.nz

- They have strengths and experience in teaching with the Virtual Learning Network (Virtual Learning Primary, FarNet Secondary School).
- They provide pedagogical support for teaching and learning at a distance.

They also support:

- programme set-up with google and Microsoft suites;
- the use of Zoom, Skype and other online platforms for teaching and learning; and
- the use of Google Classrooms, building google sites for teaching and learning purposes, writing lesson plans in Te Reo Māori for level 1 - level 3 NZQA .

Kia Ata Mai Educational Trust

Phone: 07 824 7725
Contact: Hemi Rau
Email: Hemi@kiaatamai.org

- They assist in the development of distance learning pedagogy and delivery.

They also support:

- in areas of technology using google suite, basics around Microsoft Teams, IT infrastructure, online communications and the use of appropriate applications including LMS; and
- basic strategies to engage with key stakeholders.